Dear Sir/Madam;

I have sent numerous letters and emails to your offices. I have also been trying to contact the initial patent review department for the past 4 months via telephone and no success. I explained that I had a fire and could not retrieve all of my documents. I also asked for a copy, but I was refused. Please accept this copy, that I just recently received from my cousin in England. I forgot that he had a copy of the claim.

I really attempted to correspond in a timely manner. I am praying that you accept this copy and waive any late fee. If not, please contact me as soon as possible, to avoid any ABANDONMENT issues. Thank you for your time and consideration. God Bless.

Sincerely trusting,
Ryan C.H. Leacock
